Presidents Report

Hello to all our valued members,

I hope this message finds you and your loved ones happy, healthy and keeping well.
Since our last newsletter, the Centre has temporarily paused all activities to allow for necessary repairs and maintenance. During this time, the Committee also took the opportunity to review and update our governance requirements, including our insurance cover.

Unfortunately, unexpected delays in finalising the insurance update have meant that our closure has extended longer than anticipated. While this process is still ongoing, I am delighted to share some positive news!

Our Sunday Services will resume this Sunday, 8th November, with Alana Smyth as our guest medium! Under our current insurance cover, and with some adjustments to our service format, we are able to welcome everyone back for Sunday Services only while we await confirmation of our updated cover.

Sunday Service Details:

- Doors open at 2.30pm
- Service commences at 3.00pm and concludes at 4.30pm
- Pre-service healing will remain on hold for now.

Although our pre-service healing sessions are temporarily paused, I warmly encourage you to join us and experience the healing segment offered during our Sunday Service.

We have five regular Sunday Services remaining for the year, followed by our sixth and final gathering, our much-loved Christmas Candlelight Service on Sunday, 13th December. Further details of this special celebration will be shared soon.

Once our updated insurance cover is confirmed, the Committee will review the return of our other activities, with the hope of resuming our full program after the Christmas break.

I would like to sincerely thank each and every one of you for your patience, understanding and continued support during this unexpected pause. I also extend my heartfelt appreciation to our dedicated Committee, who have been working diligently behind the scenes to ensure the Centre continues to operate responsibly and in the best interests of our spiritual community.

I know how much our Centre means to so many of you. It is more than just a place to gather; it is a welcoming and caring space where friendships are formed, spiritual connections are nurtured, and we come together in love, healing and support.

It has certainly been missed, and I am truly grateful that we can once again open our doors and reconnect with our spiritual family.

As we approach the end of another year, I look forward to welcoming you all back, sharing in the warmth of our community, and finishing the year on a positive and uplifting note.

With love and light,
Wiki

A message from HORAN (pron HOR-AHN)

Start:*

Greetings, beloved ones. It is with an open heart, deep gratitude and love that I welcome you into this sacred space.

Q: What messages of comfort can you offer to give for the members of our Spiritualist Centre in answering the call of humanity in our times of need. What can we do in helping us to become one in our Spiritual Community.

A: We say this to your beloved members of your Spiritualist Community, if we were to express a message in the voice and spirit as a loving messenger, we I would offer the following words for your Spiritualist Centre. The message is one of hope, compassion, awakening and, above all, unity.

You have gathered together not simply as individuals, but as souls who recognise that there is something greater than yourselves: the power of love, the eternal nature of spirit, and the responsibility we share towards one another.

Humanity is passing through a time when many hearts are searching for reassurance, understanding and direction. There are those who feel lost, those who carry sorrow, those who are fearful of tomorrow, and those who have forgotten the beautiful light that resides within them.

Yet we ask you to remember something very important:

You do not have to change the whole world to make a difference in the world. You need only begin by changing the world immediately around you.

Every act of kindness matters. Every hand extended in friendship matters. Every word spoken with compassion matters.

Your Spiritualist Centre can become a sanctuary of light, not because its members are perfect, but because they are willing to walk together, learn together, forgive one another and serve humanity together.

Do not allow differences of opinion, personality or understanding to divide what love has brought together.

You may follow different spiritual paths, interpret spiritual teachings differently and possess different gifts, but you share one common purpose: to bring greater love, understanding and healing into the lives of others.

Let your Centre be known not only for what it teaches, but for what it gives.

Let the lonely find friendship. Let the grieving find comfort. Let the questioning find acceptance. Let the weary find encouragement.

And let every person who enters your doors feel that they are valued.

Remember, dear friends, that spiritual progress is not measured by how much knowledge you possess, but by how much love you are willing to demonstrate.

Become the light you wish to see in humanity.

Beloved ones, the world does not need us to be perfect. It needs us to be willing.

Willing to care, willing to share, willing to forgive, willing to understand and willing to stand together in the light of our common humanity.

We support you and one another on this journey, remembering that every act of genuine kindness contributes to the greater good and no sincere act of love is ever wasted.

Walk together in peace. Serve together in love. And never underestimate what a united spiritual community can accomplish.

And always remember, be the light you wish to see in the world. Be the love you wish humanity to know. Be the change you hope to awaken in the hearts of all.

Until next time, may you walk in harmony and peace.

With love, light and blessings to all who choose the path of service.

November 2026 Channelling by Gail Clark

Good morning, friends, and welcome to all who are reading these words.
As the last part of the year starts to draw to a close, we would like to share these words with you.
There is so much turmoil and unrest in the world in which you live, it can be difficult to maintain a state of balance and harmony within oneself and the home. Acceptance of your current situation or circumstance can greatly help your state of peace. What you cannot change and therefore is beyond your ability to do so. A sense of hopefulness can often be distressing to you and your loved ones. Personal honesty can be challenging and confronting, yet it is necessary before acceptance can be reached. Once acceptance has been achieved, then you start to understand what is needed to improve your circumstances. Where you can look to see your part in your current circumstances, understand how you have contributed to them, then and only then can change start to occur. A change in your thinking and mindset, brings the start of hope and peace within.
A plan of action, however small, is a step forward for you. Maintaining gratitude with consistency for what you currently have, for the loved ones who are a part of your life, and for the many things you can be grateful for. Life is wonderful and living it is a gift.

Make meditation and reflection a daily part of your life, seek out places in Nature to restore inner harmony, and slowly but surely, a deep sense of acceptance will settle within yourself. A sense of renewed hope will surface within you, and you will feel a sense of accomplishment. Persistence and Patience will bring you what you so well deserve. You must take the first steps dear friends, and an abundant of help and comfort will be yours from your friends in Spirit.

Moving forward can sometimes be confronting and challenging, as fear and personal doubt can surface within you, this is when you look to your faith and your Spiritual beliefs. This will sustain you, help and guide you every step of the way if you will allow this to happen. Suspending the constant and continual thoughts which go through your mind takes persistence and patience, and you will achieve success with continued practice.

As the month progresses, people's thoughts move towards the Christmas season, which can be a happy time for many and a worrying time for others. Making the best of what you have, however simple, is taking charge of what you can control, small acts of kindness go a long way to bring a gentle happiness into your life and the lives of others. Help where possible those who are less fortunate than yourself, a smile, a kind word or a listening ear brings comfort more than each person can possibly know. The heart eases slightly by knowing oneself is not alone, there is no greater gift a person can give to another. Thus, the ripple effect continues.
Blessings and Namaste to you all.

Astrological Predictions for Nov/December, using Tarot,

by Rieky from Psychic Pathway's, Luluai Spiritual Group

Aries		Reflect on the results, but keep emotion and anger out of it. The outcome will come, though not as expected. Some are working against you or trying to cut ties; let them. A new path is coming soon.
Taurus		Lots of ideas to run with. Meditate on each and you will be surprised how many you will keep. All can be achieved if put in the right order. Your organisation skills will prove helpful. Pick fun ones first.
Gemini		Angry energetic influence is fine, but not your pace. Do not let anyone rush you. Done properly, at your pace gives you the standard you will be proud of. Less errors your way. Details especially important for next path.
Cancer		High energy needs to be controlled. Too fast can lead to errors. New messages are important so make sure your phone settings are correct. Missed call can hurt. On way to a happy new year.
Leo		Usually don't have this much trouble deciding. This time use a coin instead of logic. Results come from your efforts and sometimes the longer journey. Results will be better if you trust your instincts - not logic.
Virgo		Thinking you have missed the opportunity proves incorrect. Searching for it will show you the way. Offer comes in a different form than expected. You will find the right path for your desired results.
Libra		Don't feel out of balance as the wheel spins. It's an exciting time as you allow the wheel to choose your next step. One option surpasses your imagination. Your faith brings your rewards.
Scorpio		Not as confusing as you think. There are three possibilities and you do not have to only pick one. Pick which one first as all three are possible and bring happy results. One brings income the other two bring joy.
Sagittarius		A feeling of great abundance from lots of hard work. Some small surprise money, but most is earned. Next is the new path you will invest in. Seems to be a group project, again very self satisfying.
Capricorn		You pick up ideas' others have rejected and in your earthy practicality, make it work for all. A clearing of old ideas is advised, as they didn't and won't work. New ideas get you to a happier path.
Aquarius		Another grand plan that seems far fetched, but this time you really want the journey. Results are a forgone result, but the journey gives you more than you ever imagined. Calmer start to the new year
Pisces		Tremendous changes are coming and you must look for the glass half full attitude, or your negativity can stop good outcomes from arriving. New habits of looking for the positive will be rewarded.
